

WEDNESDAY
MAY
08
2013
8:00PM - 9:30PM

“My mission is to ensure no child grows up
behind bars”

- Pushpa Basnet

Join us as a panel of international visionaries share how they are working to change the lives and paths of children whose parents are living behind bars.

bondingthroughbars

giving voice to silenced children of incarcerated mothers

Hear from and speak with:

Pushpa Basnet: CNN Hero of the year and founder of the Butterfly Home for children of parental incarceration in Nepal.

Geoff Cowper: Lawyer in current BC Supreme Court Constitutional challenge on a women's right to keep her baby in Jail. Recipient of Deputy Minister award for outstanding achievement.

Sharon Content: Founder of Children of Promise in NY, embracing and empowering children whose parents are behind bars. Featured on MSNBC, ABC and recipient of the NY Post Leadership award.

Debbie Kilroy: CEO of Sisters Inside, Australia, advocating for the rights of women in the criminal justice system. Helped develop the UN rules on the treatment of women prisoners (Bangkok rules)

Sharon McIvor: Lawyer and Activist. Successfully challenged the Federal Government to amend the Indian Act (the "McIvor" amendments).

Moderated by: Chesa Boudin, Author, Lawyer, Rhodes Scholar and child of parental incarceration.

a free or
by donation event

OAKRIDGE ADVENTIST CHURCH, 3550 BAILLIE ST. VANCOUVER

in collaboration with:

