

Information on Transportation in Vancouver

Taxis: Taxis are a quick and easy way to get to and from Vancouver International Airport. Taxis are available 24-hours a day, seven days a week. Taxis charge a metered rate based on time and distance. The approximate fare to UBC is between $30 - $35 (taxes included). No reservations are required for mini-vans or wheelchair accessible taxis. Let curbside staff know your needs and they will get the right vehicle.

Arriving from Canada on a domestic flight and need a taxi?

If you have just arrived and are picking up luggage, you are located in the Domestic Terminal Arrivals, Level 2. Simply make your way outside of the terminal on Level 2 to the taxi stand.

Arriving from the U.S. or an international destination and need a taxi?

Once through the customs and immigration process, you'll enter the International Arrivals Greeting Area. Walk outside the building on the same level and look for the taxi stand. You will be assigned to the next available cab. All taxis who pick up passengers from the airport are fully licensed and all drivers must complete a training course in safe driving, customer service and helping people with special needs. Once on campus, if you wish to call a cab you can use Yellow Cab-604-681-1111 or Maclure's Cabs 604-731-9211.

Directions: The Peter Wall Institute for Advanced Studies at the University of British Columbia is located in the University Centre at the northern end of UBC's beautiful campus on the extreme west side of Vancouver. See printable map attached.

Public Transportation: TransLink, the Greater Vancouver Transportation Authority, covers buses, skytrain, seabus, trains, and ferries. Information on schedules, fares, and services is available on the TransLink website.